Thursday 22nd May 2025

Dear Parents,

I am writing to express my heartfelt gratitude for the unwavering support our school community has demonstrated during this week's OFSTED inspection. As the Headteacher of Foxhill Primary, I am extremely proud of the community we serve and the positive feedback and praise from parents have truly shone through.

The children were fantastic and made us immensely proud with their passion and enthusiasm for our school. Their dedication and commitment to their learning are a testament to the strong partnership between school and home.

While we are unable to share the result of the report until it is officially published, I can assure you that we will update you as soon as we are able. The inspection process has been a valuable opportunity for us to reflect on our strengths and identify areas for further improvement and we are committed to building on this foundation to provide an exceptional educational experience for all our pupils.

Once again, I extend my sincere thanks for your continued support and involvement in our school. It is through this collaborative effort that we can ensure the success, enjoyment and well-being of our pupils.

Yours sincerely,

Sarah Thomason
